This drawing is the property of the designer. It is protected by copyright and may not be used or reproduced without the designer's consent. The drawing is based on information provided by others. No responsibility can be accepted for errors based upon information provided to the designer. No responsibility can be accepted for any structural design, performance of materials, workmanship or any other matter which should be checked by a competent person or specialist designer. Only sub contractors and suppliers recommended by a competent person or specialist designer should be used. Dimensions of foundations are approximate only and should be confirmed by a competent person or specialist designer. Dimensions of existing structure are taken from existing drawings if available or from measurements taken on site. Dimensions of new work are to be checked on site before commencement of any work or production of any shop drawings. The work must be carried out in accordance with the current edition of the Building Regulations and all other statutory requirements, British Standard Codes of Practice and Manufacturer's Specifications. Any discrepancies must be reported to the designer before work is commenced. Any proposed variations from the approved drawings must be agreed with the designer before work is commenced. Any proposed variations from the approved drawings may require a fresh application to the Local Authority Planning Department. Any proposed variations from the approved drawings may affect the Building Regulations approval. Any proposed variations from the approved drawings may affect the Party Wall Act 1996 where applicable. Where proposing to demolish a party wall or to build on the boundary, these proposals must be agreed by the owners of the adjoining property in accordance with the Party Wall Act 1996. Where applicable, the Contractor must be satisfied that the Party Wall Act 1996 has been complied with before commencement of any work affected by the works. The Contractor must be satisfied that the adjoining owner has given their consent to the proposed works. Where drainage is to be connected to a sewer, the Contractor must be satisfied that the sewer is in a suitable condition to receive the additional drainage
