Open your horizons

with traditional sash windows...

...with a Big, Big Difference.

Just imagine: you can retain the beauty of traditional sash windows and wave goodbye to the many problems that old wooden sashes create.

No more struggling with windows that are too stiff to open or that have been painted shut; no more annoying rattles or draughts; no more rotting wooden frames to fill, rub down and paint; no more broken sash cords.

If your home has the sort of period appearance that cries out for traditional sashes, Masterframe offers a superior alternative - The Bygone Collection.

The Bygone Collection is a range of PVC-u sash windows with such superb detailing that it is almost impossible to tell them apart from wooden sashes The windows harmonise perfectly with their surroundings regardless of the age of the building.

Now you can retain the charm and character of your home and recreate the look and feel of a true box sash - both inside and out.
