Features and Benefits

Georgian Pattern plant on bar has dovetail crossover joints
Creates real feel timber joints, bars are locked together and cannot become unattached

Georgi Clips - Masterframe Patent
Secures Georgian bars to glass, combined with crossover joints means bars cannot fall off

Balance retaining clip - Masterframe Patent
Ensures that balance is held in place inside balance shoe and should not become unattached

Cill gaskets
Cill gasket ensures seal between between sash and cill

Cill pads
Ensures seal between bottom of jambs and cill

2 and 3 segment windows on continuous cill
Ensures that cills do not have to be butted together, giving more pleasant sight lines

Vacuum packed handles with template
Facilitates fitting of handles

BBA (Approx. March 2003 onwards)
Masterframe Windows Ltd will be the ONLY manufacturer of vertical sliders in WHS profiles to hold BBA certificate covering their sash windows

Multi chambered profile suite with full rein forced ovolo sashes
Built in profile rigidity with aesthetically pleasing lines, and increased thermal efficiency

Flush finish frame and glazing seals
No unsightly black gasket lines, gives clean slim sight lines

Slim top sash/Large bottom sash with deep bottom rail
Glass units equal size giving balanced appearance, especially where there are Georgian designs

White spacer bars and duplex bars
Gives single glazed appearance with individual pane effect

All sashes internally glazed
Units cannot be removed from the outside

Brass finish furniture
Traditional appearance to;
Scroll handles, Pole eye handles, Key locking cam catch, Tilt release knobs

Sashes tilt for easy clean (*restrictions may apply)
All sashes have tilt facility (below 2200mm high)

2 part lift in/lift out pivot bars
Allows easy fitting of large or awkwardly positioned windows

Decorative horns
Allows like for like replacement

2 no brass key locking limit stops
Prevents initial sash opening beyond 100mm

Lockable limit stops
Can be set to unlocked, self release automatic reset, locked in open position for child security or have one locked/one unlocked if windows are wide.

Trickle vent in top sash
To comply with new building regulations

Internal plaster board finishing trims
Gives picture frame finish

Brass D handles
Fitted in addition to/or with pole eye handles

Carry handles
For ease of movement prior to fitting

Foam Baffles
Reduces air infiltration

Projecting cills, add on sections and alternative hardware available on application