Dear Sir

Caravan Site Licence No. 50.

I refer to your letter sent to the Director of Environmental Services who has forwarded it to me for my comments.

I advise that planning permission will be required if you wish to increase the number of pitches from 5 to 15 since your current planning permission restricts you to 5 pitches. I would also suggest that since a previous application for touring caravan site was refused that the increase of this number to 15 may not be successful.

However, I can only advise that you formally apply for such a number and enclose the necessary planning application forms for you to use.

Yours faithfully
