one may find that a particular type of conflict is more common in the workplace than in the home. For example, the conflict between a parent and a child over a child's bedtime is a conflict that is not likely to occur in the workplace. Similarly, a conflict between a manager and a subordinate over a subordinate's performance is a conflict that is not likely to occur in the home. The conflict between a manager and a subordinate over a subordinate's performance is a conflict that is not likely to occur in the home.
