ENVIRONMENT AGENCY INDICATIVE FLOODPLAIN MAP

NB The Environment Agency Indicative Floodplain Maps indicate where flooding from rivers, streams, watercourses or the sea is possible. They do not show flood defences which offer vital protection in many areas, and hence do not indicate the degree of flood risk to land or property. The maps are designed as a guide only, to prompt a greater awareness of flood risk. Please refer to the Environment Agency guidance notes on the following pages.