Description of Proposed Works

Please describe the proposed works

he proposed work for the Chapel Farm extension involves the following:

Ground and First Floor Adjustments:

A proposed ground floor and first-floor layout redesign, which includes updated dimensions for various sections as outlined in the plans
Exterior Modifications:

Changes to the front, rear, north, and south side elevations are shown in the proposals. This includes adjustments to dimensions and architectural features such as window placements and façade modifications

New Features:

Installation of Velux windows to improve lighting and ventilation
Inclusion of drain channels or similar for improved drainage
Dimensional Details:

Several dimensions provided in the plans, including lengths (e.g., 15.4m, 8.9m, etc.) and heights, are indicative of a sizable modification to the current layout
Updated Aesthetic and Functional Design:

The proposed changes aim to enhance both the aesthetic appeal and functionality of the Chapel Farm extension, as evident in the elevation and layout plans.
These elements demonstrate a comprehensive effort to modernize and expand the facility while addressing specific functional requirements. Let me know if you would like detailed insights or comparisons with the existing plans!

Biodiversity net gain

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value.

This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm:

☑ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply

*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building.
