

Figure 1. The proposed breeding bird monitoring programme study area. The solid red line indicate the boundary of the proposed monitoring study area, the red dashed line the area within 300m of the wind turbines (which are shown as red and black circles).

