

Biodiversity Statement

We believe the development it be except under the grounds it is a small development 'de minimis', the development does not go over the threshold.