Subject: FW: Weydyke Bank Farm HXB/SH008.1

Dear David

I refer to your letter of 2 January 2015, addressed to Ms H Berridge of Legal Services Lincolnshire and the enclosed completed Requisition for Information.

The situation remains that the use of this site as a haulage/transport business has never had the benefit of planning permission nor has a Certificate of Lawful Use been issued.

The application for a Certificate of Lawful Use (H05-0854-98) included a red line plan outlining a site much smaller than the current area of land the business operates from. Thus it is a reasonable assumption that the nature and extent of the business has changed over time and has not remained the same since it commenced.

The file for the above application unfortunately does not include a copy of your affidavit nor the bundle of delivery notes and other evidence relating to the delivery of DERV to the site referred to in a letter from your solicitor dated 21 August 1998. Thus despite the Council's then Development Control Manager (NR Midlen) writing to Barker Gotelee on 30 September 1998 that the "documents previously sent to this Authority in connection with the original enforcement enquiry will be considered in support of the application." This does not appear to be the case as no further progress occurred in relation to this application until a decision taken in 2005 to non-determine the application.

It is the case that business rates have been paid on the premises.

Given that it is evident that the business has changed over time both with regard to the area it operates from, hours of operation, number of employees and the number and type of vehicles, it is not possible to state that the current use is lawful, hence the reason why the Council is considering issuing an enforcement notice if it considers it to be appropriate.

QUESTION

A company has two divisions, Division A and Division B. The following information is available for each division:

Division	Sales Revenue	Variable Costs	Fixed Costs
Division A	$100,000	$60,000	$20,000
Division B	$80,000	$48,000	$12,000

The company's total sales revenue is $180,000. The company's total variable costs are $108,000. The company's total fixed costs are $32,000.

Calculate the contribution margin ratio for each division and for the company as a whole.

ANSWER

Contribution Margin Ratio = (Sales Revenue - Variable Costs) / Sales Revenue

For Division A:
Contribution Margin Ratio = ($100,000 - $60,000) / $100,000 = 40%

For Division B:
Contribution Margin Ratio = ($80,000 - $48,000) / $80,000 = 40%

For the Company as a Whole:
Contribution Margin Ratio = ($180,000 - $108,000) / $180,000 = 40%

Dear Business Ratepayer,

Small Business Rate Relief Scheme

The Government has introduced a Small Business Rate Relief Scheme which will take effect from 1 April 2005. We are writing to you because your new rateable value (R.V) from 1 April 2005 that you pay rates on means that you MAY qualify for either relief or exemption from the supplementary rate that is being charged on all other properties.

YOUR NEW RATEABLE VALUE IS £2350

SECTION 1 overleaf tells you about the scheme – everyone should read this section.

SECTION 2 tells you whether or not you may qualify for the relief – read this section if the RV shown above is less than £10,000.

SECTION 3 tells you whether or not you may qualify for exemption from the supplementary rate - read this section if the RV shown above is between £10,000 and £15,000.

SECTION 4 tells you how to contact us.

Please read all of the information before deciding whether to apply. If you are not sure contact us for advice – please do not just fill in the application and send it to us.

Applications need to be sent back to us as soon as possible. If we do not receive your application within the next 14 days we may not have enough time to award any relief you are entitled to before we send your 2005/6 rate bill.

Yours faithfully

Things you should know about your meter
If you think your meter is measuring inaccurately, you can ask to have it tested. If it is working correctly, you will be charged for the test. If the test shows that the meter isn't recording as it should, we will replace it and correct your last bill. However, if the meter is found to be working correctly, you will be charged for the test.

Confirmed readings taken from the meter by authorised personnel will be used as proof of the amount of water used on that supply. The only exception to this will be if the meter has been proved to be inaccurate.

A meter will be considered inaccurate if a test shows that it measured outside of the acceptable margin of error. If we find it does, we will assume that it has done so since the reading before last, unless we know it was later.

Please don't alter or remove the water meter in any way. It is read and so is an offence. It is also a legal requirement that your meter is kept accessible at all times for reading or for us to carry out maintenance to the meter or meter chamber.

Things you should know about your meter
If you think your meter is measuring inaccurately, you can ask to have it tested. If it is working correctly, you will be charged for the test. If the test shows that the meter isn't recording as it should, we will replace it and correct your last bill. However, if the meter is found to be working correctly, you will be charged for the test.

Confirmed readings taken from the meter by authorised personnel will be used as proof of the amount of water used on that supply. The only exception to this will be if the meter has been proved to be inaccurate.

A meter will be considered inaccurate if a test shows that it measured outside of the acceptable margin of error. If we find it does, we will assume that it has done so since the reading before last, unless we know it was later.

Please don't alter or remove the water meter in any way. It is fraud and so is an offence. It is also a legal requirement that your meter is kept accessible at all times for reading or for us to carry out maintenance to the meter or meter chamber.
