South Lincs are city slickers with impressive haul

Swimming

A total of 19 swimmers from Spalding-based South Lincs Competitive Swimming Club returned home from the City of Peterborough Winter Open Meet with a whopping 30 medals.

The three-day event produced 13 gold medals, ten silvers and seven bronzes, as well as a plethora of personal best (PB), county (CQT) and midland (MQT) times.

Stand out performances included that of Hannah Willis, who gained gold medals in all of her events, Luke Blanchard for making two open finals and Aurinja Maliauskaite for making an open final in 50m freestyle at just 12-years-old.

The team also produced three of the top six girls overall, which is based on points scored over all events out of all swimmers in all age groups.

Dusty Saines (2nd), Hannah Willis (4th) and Elisha

Cookson (6th) all performed superbly.

That helped South Lincs place third out of 12 teams overall on the day.

Jeremy's funeral on Monday

The funeral of Jeremy Biggs is to be held next week.

Jeremy's funeral is to be held at Peterborough Crematorium on Monday (December 5) at 2.30pm, followed by a wake at Stamford Football Club's Zeeco Stadium, to which everyone is cordially invited.

Please note that space at the Crematorium is rather limited.

Dubbed "Mr UCL" for his tireless exploits in the ChromaSport United Counties League, Jeremy died suddenly on November 16, aged 55.

Both Spalding United and Holbeach United observed a minute of silence in respect of him in their respective fixtures on November 19.

The family request no flowers, with any donations to the British Heart Foundation. All expressions of condolences to be sent to Mr R Biggs, c/o Mrs S Udale, Broccoli Bottom, Wing Road, Manton, Oakham, Rutland LE15 8SZ.

SETTING SAIL: The starting line for round three of the Frostbite Series on Sunday.

Ros is third Frostbite winner

Sailing

The race to win Welland Yacht Club's Frostbite Series remains wide open after Ros Nickols became the third different winner in as many rounds on Sunday.

Bright sunshine and little wind greeted the 11 boats on the starting line for round three, with experience key in such conditions.

Nickols emerged victorious from Brian Cobb in second, with Paul Burton taking joint third position with the duo of Alan Cox and Roger Ackroyd.

WIDE OPEN: Ros Nickols took top spot on Sunday and is one of many at Welland YC in the hunt for overall glory.
