Report number 20-12-02 Date 20th December 2020

Environmental Risk Assessment of the Rising Sun,

Pit Lane, Gedney Drove End, Spalding, PE12 9PG

Non - technical Summary

The site (~ 0.09 ha) is apparently located on an historical landfill site. However, the houses on the middle of the landfill site and on the road edges of the site appear to be at least 60 years old and may be around 80 to 100 years old from their appearance. There is no information about the starting and finishing times of deposition of waste, but the houses on the site give some timings. There is no information about the type of landfill, but even if any putrescible materials had been dumped, it is unlikely that any landfill gas could be emitted after such a long time. Therefore, the risk of harm to the occupiers of the site is not significant and the risk is acceptable.

The bedrock and superficial deposits are largely impermeable, so the risk of harm from any substances on site to the environment if not significant and the risk is acceptable

No further investigation is necessary for this development.

Report number 20-12-02 Date 20th December 2020

Stage One Environmental Desk Study of the Rising Sun,

Pit Lane, Gedney Drove End, Spalding, PE12 9PG

Planning Application No. H06-1035-20 and H06-1034-20

1. Scope of the Risk Assessment

1.1 Under instructions from Andrew Chase of Great Night Inns Ltd, 18 Campbells Meadow, (Campbells Business Park), King's Lynn, Norfolk, PE30 4YR, I have prepared this risk assessment based on the following:

Google aerial images
A Sitecheck Data Report dated 15th December 2020, reference SCD_270594774_1_1.
BGS map of the site for identification of bedrock and superficial deposits Landfill datasets from DEFRA Historical Landfill site
A visit to the site on 18th December 2020

1.2 The purpose of this report is to assess whether this site, or potential contaminants from adjacent sites, could present a significant risk of harm to the occupiers of the site or to the environment.

2 Sitecheck Data Report + Google aerial photograph + BGS data + Old-Maps.co.uk

2.1 The Sitecheck Data report searches features that are recorded on maps or in trade directories of the surrounding area and points to features that may be of concern. As with all automated systems, this tends to identify many features that are not relevant and therefore interpretation of the results is required.

2.2 The Google aerial photograph (figure 1) shows the site to be in a small village of residential properties with fields very close by.

2.3 Under current land use for the site, nothing is noted.

2.4 Under current land use for the surrounding area, discharge consents are marked at about 50 m to the south, at about 120 m to the east and at about 230 m to the northeast, inactive road haulage services are noted at about 200 m to the northwest and an inactive leather products facility is marked at about 220 m to the southeast.

2.5 Under historical land use for the site, nothing is noted.

2.6 Under historical land use for the surrounding area, potential tanks are marked at about70 m to the northwest and an electrical sub station is noted at about 130 m to the northwest.

2.7 The BGS geology map shows that the bedrock is in the Ampthill Clay Formation mudstone group, which is largely impermeable, with superficial soils of Tidal Flat Deposits comprising clay and silt. The nearest surface water feature is a drain at about 60 m and flowing south.

2.8 Radon is in a low probability area affecting < 1 % of homes and no radon protection measures are recommended.

2.9 The DEFRA Historical landfill data sets shows that the whole site is on an historical landfill site (figure 2). The Environment Agency site did not have any information about the site, but it is very common for small clay deposits that are suitable for making bricks to be excavated for that very purpose. The Old-maps.co.uk show houses on this site in 1888, 1905 and 1951, so it makes deposition of fill in the last 120 years unlikely.

2.10 In summary, the site is located in the centre of a small village with houses along roads with fields behind. Nothing was noted on the site in SCD report, but landfill was marked on the DEFRA Historical Landfill site. The site is flat and level with an inactive road haulage services being marked near it and historical potential tanks and electrical sub station being noted near it. The bedrock and superficial soils consist of clays which are largely impermeable and the nearest surface water feature is a ditch some way from the site.

3 Site Visit on 18th December 2020

3.1 The site was visited when the sky was overcast, but bright.. The public house is located in the middle of the village with parking at the front (photo 1) The bricks on the original building appear to be hand-made which could date the building to the late part of the 19th century or the early part of the 20th century (photo 2). The rear garden is grassed and is accessed from Pit Lane (photo 3).

3.2 A number of extensions have been added over the years, a single storey to the side (photo 1 and 4) and some to the rear (photo 4). Most of these are to be demolished and extensions to the side and rear will increase the area for serving meals. An old caravan that has been extensively damaged (photo 5 and 6) is present beside the rear patio. The front has been ripped off and leaving glass, aluminium frames and sheet wood on the ground. All the debris around the end of the caravan appeared to have come from the caravan with no evidence of any other materials being dumped there. A search around the site found it to be clean with no evidence for any refuse being dumped on site. Even the aluminium kegs had not been stolen from the rear of the site.

3.3 A resident from the house on the left beyond the garden in photo 3 did not know anything about the landfill. She understood that Pit Lane led to a water-logged area some time in the past. There is a drain to the south that may have been used to drain the land. Fill may have been added to level the site, but searching the EA site has not yielded any information on historical landfill as defined on the DEFRA site. Also, at least six residences along Pit Lane appear to be over 80 years old with the building next to the Rising Sun on Main Street. One old house and a derelict barn where Main Street turns left with three more houses further along Main Street are also at least 80 years old and within the boundary of the marked historical landfill site. This puts the landfill site at least 60 years since ceasing to place landfill.

3.4 A walk around the area found that the inactive road haulage facility was a residential house with no room for lorries. However, it may have been the registered address or the site could have been sold and redeveloped as the house is fairly new. The historical potential tanks could not be identified but the electrical sub station is still present but has been replaced with a newer design. A walk around the area could not find any evidence for sources of potential contamination,

4. Conceptual Model

4.1 The site (~ 0.09 ha) is in an area that is mainly rural with houses along the roads and fields to the rear in most cases. The Sitecheck Data report and walk around the village did not find any sources of potential contamination, but a DEFRA publication did outline a landfill site that covers all of this site and much of the surrounding area. However, there is nothing on the Environment Agency site to give more information about it, such as type of waste and years in which is was operating, as there used to be (what's in your backyard).

4.2 The site is level and flat, the ground under the site and the soils on the site are largely impermeable and the nearest surface water feature is drain flowing south from near to the site. The public house appears to be very old going by the hand-made bricks on the original building and other buildings within the landfill boundary are also more than 60 years old.

4.3 The suggested model of 'source, pathway, target' in which all three components have to be present will be considered for this site. In this context, the source will be a potential contaminant, the receptor will be human or environmental and the pathway will be some process whereby mass transfer from source to receptor occurs.

4.4 Possible pollutant linkages:

Contaminant	Pathway	Receptor
Landfill gas	Permeation through the landfill and ingress into buildings	Occupiers of the buildings

5 Conclusions and Recommendations

5.1 The main source of potential contamination appears to be the landfill marked on the DEFRA website, but not on the Environment Agency website. The most likely explanation for the landfill is that clay was extracted to build some of the houses in the village and subsequently infilled. As many of the houses and a large derelict barn on Main Street are within the boundary of the landfill, then it is at least 60 years since fill was placed on the site. It would not have been a deep pit as the village is small so very little landfill would have been placed. Even if a significant quantity of putrescible material was placed on the site, after at least 60 years and more likely 80 years, with aerated rain water soaking the site, all carbon sources would have been converted to methane or carbon dioxide. This is supported by the Old-Maps.co.uk site which shows houses from 1888 to the 70s on this site.

5.2 The risk of methane being generated now from such an old landfill site is not significant and the risk is acceptable

6.1 The site (~ 0.09 ha) is apparently located on an historical landfill site. However, some of the houses on the middle of the site and on the road edges of the site appear to be at least 60 years old and may be around 80 to 100 years old from the appearances of the houses. There is no information about the starting and finishing times of deposition of waste, but the houses on the site give some timings. There is no information about the type of landfill, but even if any putrescible materials had been dumped, it is unlikely that any landfill gas could be emitted after such a long time. The Old-Maps.co.uk site supports this conclusion with houses on site from 1888 to the 70s. Therefore, the risk of harm to the occupiers of the site is not significant and the risk is acceptable.

6.2 The bedrock and superficial deposits are largely impermeable, so the risk of harm from any substances on site to the environment if not significant and the risk is acceptable

6.4 Those workers whose main job it is to grade sites or excavate significant quantities of soil could be subject to cumulative exposure to various substances on many sites and they should wear overalls and gloves, even if the soils do not present a significant risk to the health of the workforce. For example, the presence of water contaminated with Weil's disease is a small probability but working on many sites increases the risk of infection to a worker. Localised contamination from small amounts of chemicals that could have been discarded is an unlikely event, but if heavily discoloured or highly odorous materials are encountered, then appropriate advice should be sought.

Registered Landfill Sites

At present no complete national data set exists for landfill site boundaries, therefore a point grid reference, provided by the data supplier, is used for some landfill sites. In certain cases the point grid references supplied provide only an approximate position and can vary from the site entrance to the centre of the site. Where the exact position of the site is unclear, Landmark construct either a 100 metre or 250 metre "buffer" around the point to warn of the possible presence of landfill. The size of this "buffer" relates to the positional accuracy that can be attributed to the site. The "buffer" is shown on the map as an orange cross-hatched circle and is referred to in the map legend as Potential Landfill Buffer. Where actual boundaries are available, the landfill site area is shown on the map as a red diagonal hatched polygon and referred to in the map legend as Registered Landfill Site.

Local Authority Recorded Landfill Sites

Local Authority landfill data are sourced from individual local authorities that were able to provide information on sites operating prior to the introduction of the Control of Pollution Act (COPA) in 1974. Appropriate authorities are listed under Local Authority Landfill Coverage with an indication of whether or not they were able to make landfill data available. Details of any records identified are disclosed. You should be aware that if the local authority 'Had landfill data but passed it to the relevant environment agency' it does not necessarily mean that local authority landfill data is included in our other Landfill datasets. In addition if no data has been made available, for all or part of the search area, you should be aware that a negative response under 'Local Authority Recorded Landfill Sites' does not necessarily confirm that no local authority landfills exist.

Flooding

The Sitecheck report flood map plots all flood related features revealed within the search area as supplied by the relevant environment agency. However, to avoid confusion, the text entry in the body of the report only reveals the detail of the nearest feature in each flood data set. This is also reflected in the summary table where only a single entry is included to indicate the search buffer of the nearest occurrence.

Mining Instability The Mining Instability data was obtained on licence from Ove Arup & Partners Limited (for further information, contact mining.review@arup.com). No reproduction or further use of such Data is to be made without the prior written consent of Ove Arup & Partners Limitec The supplied Mining Instability data is derived from publicly available records and other third party sources and neither Ove Arup & Partners nor Landmark warrant the accuracy or completeness of such information or data.

a. These Terms (including, where applicable, Third Party Content Terms) govern the relationship between Us and You where You use or purchase Services from Us. Where these Terms are not expressly accepted by You, they will be deemed to have been accepted by You, and You agree to be bound by these Terms: (a) when You place any Order, or pay for any Services provided to You by Us; and (b) in respect of Your use of any Website, by accessing and continuing to use any part of this Website. If You do not agree with any of the Terms that apply to Our Websites, then You must not use the Website.

b. You may be required to register Your details and/or open an account to access or order certain Services. Submission of Your registration and Your use of such Services shall be deemed acceptance of these Terms. You shall ensure that all information provided when submitting your registration is up to date, true, accurate and complete. We reserve the right to suspend or terminate Your access to the Website or block Your ability to place Orders in the event of any breach of this clause 1.b. Each registration is for a single user only. We do not permit You as Subscription Users to share user names and passwords with any other person nor with multiple users on a network. It is Your responsibility to maintain the confidentiality of Your password and those of Subscription Users for whom you are responsible and You are responsible for all activity that occurs under such user names and passwords. We will not be liable where Your password or those of Subscription Users for whom you are responsible are used by someone else. c. You shall take all reasonable steps to check that the details that You provide in relation to Your Order are complete, accurate and correct and that the Service is provided for the correct location and property type. Neither We nor any Suppliers shall have any liability for errors or omissions in information provided by or on behalf of You or from Your failure to check that the Service relates to the correct location or property.

d. We may modify these Terms, and may discontinue or revise any or all other aspects of the Services at Our sole discretion, with immediate effect and without prior notice, including without limitation changing the Services available at any given time. Any amendment or variation to these Terms shall be posted on Our Websites. Continued Orders of the Services or continued use of the Website by You shall be deemed an acceptance by You to be bound by any such amendments to the Terms. We will not file or store a copy of these Terms for each interaction or transaction by You via the Website.

e. These Terms together with the Third Party Content Terms, any Order You make (if applicable), the Fees (if applicable) and delivery details in relation to the Order and Our privacy policy, which is available on the Website, constitute the entire agreement between the parties relating to the supply of Services to You by Us ("Agreement"). You acknowledge that You have not relied on any statement, promise or representation made or given by or on behalf of Us which is not set out in the Agreement or delivery details. Nothing in this clause 1.e shall limit or exclude any liability for fraud.

f. These Terms shall prevail at all times to the exclusion of all other terms and conditions including any terms and conditions which You may purport to apply even if such other provisions are submitted in a later document or purport to exclude or override these Terms and neither the course of conduct between parties nor trade practice shall act to modify these Terms.

2 Services and Licensed Use

   ii. any person who purchases or intends to purchase the whole or part of the Property Site;

g. You shall ensure that acknowledgements of copyright and database right ownership are included in a conspicuous position in all copies of the Content. You may not delete any of Our or the Suppliers' intellectual property protection notices (including without limitation copyright notices or trade marks) from the Content.

h. You shall not reverse engineer, separate or otherwise tamper with the Content so that Content can be extracted and used for any purpose outside the scope of the Agreement.

i. If You are a Company or public body, You agree that the licensed use of Content pursuant to the Agreement always excludes its use by any of Your subsidiaries, holding companies or subsidiaries of such holding companies (as such terms are defined in section 1159 of the Companies Act 2006) or by any government entity associated with You (in each case as applicable). You agree, and shall procure, that any such company or entity shall enter into a separate agreement with Us.

j. All other uses of the Content other than as permitted by the Agreement are prohibited. If You wish to use the Content in a manner which is not authorised by the Terms, then You must contact Us to seek the necessary consents or licences (which may include further licences from the Suppliers), for which there may be additional Fees.

k. You agree to notify Us should You suspect any infringement of Our or any of Our Supplier's Intellectual Property Rights.

l. You agree that you will not use the Services (including without limitation Our Websites) in any way that may lead to the encouragement, procurement or carrying out if any criminal or unlawful activity or do anything that may cause damage to the Website or our servers, systems or equipment or those of third parties, nor access any users' data or penetrate or circumvent any Website security measures or attempt to do any such acts.

3 Intellectual Property, Confidentiality and Privacy Policy

a. You acknowledge and agree that all Intellectual Property Rights in Content and Our Websites are and shall continue to be owned by Us or Our Suppliers and nothing in the Agreement shall transfer, assign or grant any rights to You (save for the licence as set out above).

b. The names, images and logos identifying Us, companies in the Landmark group, our partners or third parties and our/their products and/or services contained in or sold via the Website are proprietary marks and may not be reproduced or otherwise used without express permission.

c. Subject to any use of the Content in accordance with these Terms, You acknowledge and agree that You shall, and shall procure that any person to whom You provide access to the Content shall, treat as strictly private and confidential the Services, the Content and all information which they obtain from the Services and Content and you agree to use adequate technical and organisational measures to protect the Content from unauthorised use.

d. Where mapping is provided by Ordnance Survey, You acknowledge and agree that such mapping contained in any Services is protected by Crown Copyright and must not be used for any purpose outside the context of the Services. Where mapping is provided by any other Supplier, You acknowledge and agree that such mapping is the copyright of the Supplier and must not be used for any purpose outside the context of the Services.

e. With regard to Ordnance Survey mapping (other than OS OpenData™ in respect of which see Third Party Content Terms (OS OpenData)), copying in whole or in part by any means of map prints or run-on copies provided with the Services is not permitted without appropriate licensing from the relevant Supplier. You must be in possession of or obtain a valid Ordnance Survey Paper Map Copying Licence if You wish to make any further copies of any Ordnance Survey maps supplied with or forming part of the Services.

a. In respect of any Subscription, You may terminate Your Subscription at the end of any given month by providing us with written notice during that month. You will continue to have access to the relevant On-Demand Services for the duration of the month in which the notice is given.

b. At any time, either party may terminate the Agreement with immediate effect by giving the other party written notice:

   i. if the other party is in material breach of the Terms and, if such breach is capable of remedy, that party fails to remedy the breach within 30 days of written notice specifying the breach and requiring it to be remedied;

ii. the other party has a receiver or administrative receiver or administrator appointed over any part of its undertaking or assets or passes a resolution for winding up (otherwise than for the purpose of a bona fide scheme of solvent amalgamation or reconstruction) or if a court of competent jurisdiction makes an order to that effect or if it become subject to an administration order or enter into a voluntary arrangement with its creditors or shall cease or threaten to cease to carry on business or if they are presented with a bankruptcy petition; or

iii. if We or a Supplier loses the right to administer Crown copyright and/or Crown database right in respect of the Ordnance Survey Data.

c. In the event of the termination or expiry of the Agreement with respect to the Service ordered by You:

i. You shall, subject to clause 4.c.iii, immediately cease to use the affected Service and Content;

ii. You shall, subject to clause 4.c.iii, within 30 days of such termination or expiry, destroy all Content relating to the terminated Service in any media which is in Your possession or control and provide, at Our request, a sworn statement by a duly authorised person that You no longer hold such Content;

iii. except in the event of termination by Us under clause 4.b, You may retain Content in an archive following expiry of the Agreement for the sole purpose of addressing a complaint or challenge from a regulator or other third party regarding Your use of such Content during the term of the Agreement. Your rights are on condition that: (a) the archive rights do not apply to Content that include third party Intellectual Property Rights (other than Content provided by Ordnance Survey to the extent that the Intellectual Property Rights in such Content are owned by Ordnance Survey); (b) You shall not disclose Content retained under this clause 4.c.iii to any regulator or other third party except strictly to the extent necessary for the relevant purpose of addressing a complaint or challenge from a regulator or other third party and in paper or read-only electronic format only; (c) You must store such Content separately from any other data which You hold; and (d) subject to clause 6.a, We shall have no liability for Your use of it following termination or expiry of the Agreement; and

iv. the parties shall have no further obligations or rights under the Agreement (save in respect of any continued use of publicly accessible Websites), without prejudice to those which have accrued to either party prior to termination or expiry save that the "Definitions", clauses 2.f to 2.k (inclusive), this clause 4.c, clauses 5.d, 6, 7, 9, 10 and 11 together with those other clauses the survival of which is necessary for the interpretation or enforcement of the Agreement or which by their nature can be reasonably interpreted as surviving the expiry or termination of the Agreement, shall continue to have effect after such expiry or termination.

5 Payments

a. Where You do not pay the Fees at the point of purchase You agree that You will pay the Fees at the rates set out in Our or Our Authorised Reseller's invoice within 30 days of the date of each invoice without deduction, counterclaim or set off. Where Your order comprises a number of Services or severable elements within any one or more Services, any failure by Us or an Authorised Reseller to provide an element or elements of the Services shall not prejudice Our or an Authorised Reseller's ability to require prompt payment in respect of the Services delivered to You.

a.i. If You have purchased a Subscription this shall be payable monthly in arrears.

b. VAT shall be due in addition to any Fees. You shall pay any other applicable indirect taxes related to Your use of the Services.

c. Neither We nor any Authorised Reseller shall be required to notify You in advance of any amendment to the Fees and the placing of any further Order for Services shall be deemed acceptance of any revisions to the Fees.

d. If You fail to pay by the due date any amount due and payable by You under the Agreement, We shall be entitled, but not obliged to, charge You interest on the overdue amount, payable by You immediately on demand, accruing on a daily basis from the due date up to the date of actual payment, after as well as before judgment, at the rate set out in the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998 from time to time and fixed sum compensation under the Late Payment of Commercial Debts Regulations 2002.

5A Subscriptions

a. If you are accessing the Services under a Subscription you must:

i. ensure that the maximum number of Subscription Users that you authorise to access and use the Services does not exceed the number of Subscriptions purchased from time to time; and

ii. not allow any Subscription which has been purchased on a per-username basis to be used by more than one individual Subscription User (unless it has been reassigned in its entirety to another individual Subscription User, in which case the prior Subscription User shall no longer have any right to access or use the Services).

b. Subscription User's use of the Services must be reasonable and proportionate to enable Us to continue to provide Our services to all of Our customers. If at any time We consider Your use of the Services to be excessive We shall contact You and We reserve the right to restrict Your use to normal limits.

c. If We consider Your use of the Services to exceed the expected usage levels, based on the number of Subscriptions You have purchased, You shall permit Us to audit Your access and use of the Services in order to establish Your compliance with these Terms.

d. If any audit referred to in clause 5A.c reveals that any password has been provided to any individual who is not a Subscription User, then we shall be entitled to cancel any such Subscription and/or block the applicable Subscription User account.

e. If any of the audits referred to in clause 5A.c reveal that You have underpaid Us for any Subscription Fees, then without prejudice to the Our other rights, You shall pay to Us an amount equal to such underpayment within 14 days of the date of the relevant audit.

6. Liability

a. Nothing in these Terms excludes or limits either party's liability for death or personal injury caused by that party's negligence or wilful default or for fraud, and the remainder of this clause 6 is subject to this provision. If You are a consumer, Your statutory rights (which include, for example, that We will provide the Services to a reasonable standard and within a reasonable time) are not affected by anything in these Terms.

b. Save as set out in clause 6.a, We shall not be liable to You or to any End User in contract, tort (including negligence) or for breach of statutory duty or in any other way for:

i. any indirect or consequential losses (which includes any loss that could not have been reasonably expected by You and Us at the time of entering into these Terms);

ii. loss arising from or in connection with loss of revenues, profits, contracts or business or failure to realise anticipated savings; or

iii. loss of goodwill or reputation.

c. Save as set out in clause 6.a, Our total liability to You and/or any End User in contract or tort (including negligence) or for breach of statutory duty shall not exceed:

i. in respect of any Services other than the Promap® service, an amount of ten million pounds (£10,000,000) in the aggregate; and

ii. in respect of our Promap® service, an aggregate amount of £350,000.

d. The Content that Services are based on is partly derived from third party sources. Therefore, save as set out in clause 6.l in respect of risk assessments and professional opinions, We do not warrant the accuracy or completeness of any information or Content provided, unless We should reasonably have been alerted to any omission, error or inaccuracy in the Content. Such Content is provided specifically from the sources as described by Us and We do not claim that these represent an exhaustive or comprehensive list of all sources that might be consulted. We shall not be liable for any inaccurate statement, opinion or risk rating in a Service which resulted from a reasonable interpretation of the Content

e. You acknowledge and agree that neither You nor any End User shall have any claim or recourse against any Supplier of Third Party Content.

f. You acknowledge and agree that We do not warrant that the online supply of Website, Content or Services or any internet ordering service will be: uninterrupted or error free or provide any particular facilities or functions; free from defects; free from software viruses; free of error from computer malfunction, inaccurate processing; free from corruption of data whilst geo-coding, processing by computer or electronic means or in the course of transmission; or similar, although We will use reasonable endeavours to correct any such issues within a reasonable period of them becoming known (which may be limited to notifying the relevant Supplier). We will not be liable to You or to any other person in the event that all or any part of Our Websites is discontinued, modified or changed in any way. Time shall not be of the essence in providing the Website, Content or Services.

g. You acknowledge and agree that no physical inspection of the Property Site reported on is carried out as part of any Services offered by Us and We do not warrant that all land uses or features whether past or current will be identified in the Services. The Services do not include any information relating to the actual state or condition of any Property Site nor should they be used or taken to indicate or exclude actual fitness or unfitness of a Property Site for any particular purpose.

h. You acknowledge and agree that any party, other than You or the Beneficiaries, who relies on a Report does so entirely at its own risk, including, without limitation, any insurers. We accept no responsibility and shall not be liable to any such party for any loss caused as a result of any such reliance upon a Report.

i. You acknowledge and agree that We will not be held liable in any way if a Service is used otherwise than as provided for in these Terms and/or in the Report or Service.

j. You acknowledge and agree that the Services have not been prepared to meet Your or anyone else's individual requirements and it is Your responsibility to ensure that the Services ordered are suitable for Your (or the End User's) intended purpose.

k. You acknowledge and agree that You shall, on receipt of a Report carry out a reasonable inspection to satisfy Yourself that there are no apparent defects or failures with respect to the description and location of the Property Site and shall promptly inform Us if there are any such defects or failures.

l. All liability for any insurance products purchased by You rests solely with the insurer. We do not endorse any particular product or insurer and no information contained within the Services should be deemed to imply otherwise. You acknowledge that:

   i. if You Order any such insurance We will deem such as Your consent to forward a copy of the Report to the insurers. Where such policy is purchased, You acknowledge and agree that You are entirely responsible for ensuring that the insurance policy offered is suitable for Your needs and should seek independent advice;

   ii. all decisions with regard to the offer of insurance policies for any premises will be made solely at the discretion of the insurers and We accept no liability in this regard; and

   iii. the provision of a Report does not constitute any indication by Us that insurance will be available on the Property Site.

m. We may provide You with professional opinions or a risk assessment in a Report. You acknowledge and agree that We shall carry out (or procure that third parties carry out) such assessment with reasonable skill and care and that We shall be liable where any such risk assessment is carried out negligently.

n. Neither You, nor any End User or any other person may rely on a Service more than 12 months after it was originally provided.

o. Without limiting Our liability under these Terms for Content that You purchase, while We endeavour to ensure that the information on Our Websites is correct, We make no promise nor do We give any warranty or guarantee regarding the accuracy and completeness of the material on Our Website. 7. Contribution – Envirosearch® Residential and Homecheck Professional® Environmental Reports Only a. Nothing in this clause 7 shall operate to override or vary the provisions of clause 6. Save where expressly provided and regardless of the result of Reports, this clause 7 shall apply solely to:

   i. Envirosearch® Residential Reports; and

   ii. Homecheck Professional ® Environmental where Our preferred risk assessment provider certifies that the level of environmental risk identified in the report is not likely to be sufficient for the property to be described as "contaminated land" as defined by section 78(A)2 of Part IIA of the Environmental Protection Act 1990 and where Our preferred risk assessment provider should have identified such risk.

b. We are prepared to offer, on a discretionary basis without any admission or inference of liability, a contribution towards the costs of any remediation works required under a Notice (as defined below) on the terms of this clause 7 ("the Contribution") – subject to us reserving the right to withdraw the offer of a contribution at any time.

c. In the event that a Remediation Notice is served on the First Purchaser or First Purchaser's Lender of a Property Site under Part IIA of the Environmental Protection Act 1990 ("the Notice") We may, at our absolute discretion, contribute to the cost of such works as either the First Purchaser or First Purchaser's Lender (but not both) are required to carry out under the Notice subject to the provisions of this clause 7 and on the following terms:

   i. the Contribution shall only apply to contamination or a pollution incident present or having occurred prior to the date of the Report;

   ii. the Contribution shall only apply where the Property Site is a single residential dwelling house or a single residential flat within a block of flats. For the avoidance of doubt, this obligation does not apply to any commercial property, nor to any Property Site being developed or redeveloped whether for residential purposes or otherwise;

   iii. the Contribution is strictly limited to the cost of works at the Property Site and at no other site; and

   iv. the Contribution will not be paid in respect of any of the following: (1) radioactive contamination of whatsoever nature; (2) asbestos or asbestos-containing materials on or in structures or services serving the Property Site. For the avoidance of doubt, We may contribute towards asbestos in the ground; (3) the intentional disregard of or knowing wilful or deliberate non-compliance by any owner or occupier of the Property Site with any statute, regulation, administrative complaint, notice of violation, or notice letter of any Regulatory Authority; (5) any condition which is known or ought reasonably to have been known to the First Purchaser or the First Purchaser's Lender prior to the purchase of the Report; (6) any condition which is caused by acts of war or an act of terrorism; (7) any property belonging to or in the custody or control of the First Purchaser which does not form a fixed part of the Property Site or the structure; and/or (8) any losses incurred following a material change in use of, alteration or development of the Property Site.

d. Without prejudice to Your other rights and remedies under the Agreement, the maximum sum that may be contributed by Us in respect of any Contribution shall be limited to; £100,000 for Homecheck Professional® Reports; £150,000 for Envirosearch® Residential Reports; and £250,000 for RiskView Residential Reports. In the event that more than one Report is purchased on the Property Site the Contribution shall only be considered under the first Report purchased by or on behalf of any First Purchaser or First Purchaser's Lender and no Contribution shall be considered in respect of subsequent Reports purchased by or on behalf of such First Purchaser, First Purchaser's Lender or any person connected to them.

e. We shall only consider a Contribution where the Notice is served within 36 months of the issue date of the Report.

f. Any rights to a Contribution under this clause 7 are not assignable in the event of a sale of the Property Site and We shall not make any Contribution after the date of completion of such sale.

g. In the event the First Purchaser or First Purchaser's Lender wishes to claim any Contribution, it shall notify Us in writing within 3 months of the date of the Notice. The First Purchaser or First Purchaser's Lender (as applicable) shall comply with all Our reasonable requirements with regard to the commission and conduct of the remediation works to be carried out under the Notice, and in the event the First Purchaser or First Purchaser's Lender (as applicable) does not do so, including without limitation, obtaining Our prior written consent to any estimates for such works or complying with any other reasonable request by Us, We shall not be required to pay any Contribution. Notwithstanding the payment of the Contribution by Us the First Purchaser or First Purchaser's Lender as applicable shall take all reasonable steps to mitigate any costs incurred in connection with the conduct of works required under the terms of any Notice.

h. In the event that the First Purchaser or First Purchaser's Lender receives any communication from a statutory authority to the effect that there is an intent to serve a notice received under Part IIA of the Environmental Protection Act 1990 You shall use reasonable endeavours to ensure that they advise Us within a maximum period of two months from receipt of such communication. This clause 7.h and the service of any notice under it shall not affect the provisions of clauses 7.e and 7.g, and any such communications, even if advised to Us will not operate as notice under clause 7.e.

8. Assignment and Sub-contracting

a. We shall be entitled to assign or transfer the Agreement.

b. The Agreement is personal to You. You shall not assign, transfer, sub-licence or otherwise deal with any of Your rights and obligations under the Agreement without Our prior written consent.

c. We may authorise or allow Our contractors and other third parties to provide to Us and/or to You services necessary or related to the Services and to perform Our obligations and exercise Our rights under these Terms, which may include collecting payment on Our behalf.

9. Events Beyond Our Control

a. Neither party to the Agreement shall be liable for any delay or failure to perform their obligations caused by any circumstance beyond their control, and such party shall be entitled to a reasonable extension of time for the performance of such obligation.

10. Complaints and Dispute Resolution

a. Any complaints in relation to the Services should, in the first instance, be in writing addressed to the Customer Service Support Manager at Our registered office. We will (or Our agents will) respond to any such complaints in writing as soon as practicably possible. Alternatively you may wish to make a complaint to The Property Ombudsman by contacting them at https://www.tpos.co.uk/.

b. If any dispute arises out of or in connection with the Terms of the Agreement or their validity ("Dispute") the parties undertake, subject to clause 10.c, that prior to commencement of court proceedings they will negotiate in good faith to settle such Dispute by mediation in accordance with the Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution Model Mediation Procedure as in force from time to time, which Procedure is deemed to be incorporated by reference into this clause. Unless otherwise agreed between the parties, the mediator will be nominated by the Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution. To initiate the mediation a party shall give notice in writing to the other party to the dispute requesting a mediation. The mediation will start not later than 21 days after the date of service of such notice. If the Dispute has not been resolved to the mutual satisfaction of the parties within 60 days (or such other period as they shall agree) after the date of service of such notice then either party may refer the Dispute to the courts in accordance with clause 11.f.

c. Clause 10.b shall be without prejudice to the rights of termination stated in clause 4.b and in addition shall not prevent Us from:

   i. applying for injunctive relief in the case of: (1) breach or threatened breach of confidentiality; or (2) infringement or threatened infringement of Our or Our Suppliers' Intellectual Property Rights; or

ii. pursuing a debt claim for the payment of the Fees.

11. General

a. If any provision of the Agreement is found by either a court or other competent authority to be void, invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that provision shall be deemed to be deleted from the Agreement and never to have formed part of the Agreement and the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.

b. No delay, failure or omission on Our, or any Supplier's, part in enforcing, exercising or pursuing any right, power, privilege, claim or remedy conferred by or arising under the Agreement or by law shall be deemed to be or construed as a waiver of that or any other right, power, privilege, claim or remedy, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right, power, privilege, claim or remedy preclude the exercise of that or any other right, power, privilege, claim or remedy.

c. Our privacy policy as displayed on Our Website and updated from time to time governs the use that We shall make of any information provided by You or an End User.

d. A person who is not a party to any contract made pursuant to these Terms shall have no right under the Contract (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any terms of the Agreement and We shall not be liable to any such third party in respect of the Products, save that any Supplier may enforce any of these terms and conditions against You in accordance with the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999. Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Agreement, We may rescind or vary the Agreement in accordance with its terms without the consent of the Suppliers and accordingly section 2(1) of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 shall not apply.

e. You shall ensure that each End User agrees to comply with and is bound by the Terms and shall procure that We may in Our own right enforce such terms and conditions against the End User pursuant to the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.

f. The Agreement and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with it shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and, subject to clause 10.b, each party irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.
