Dear Sir

H07/1090/87

As a result of recent economic conditions we no longer own racehorses. We would ask therefore that the "racehorses" condition 4 of the above planning be omitted and the word "horses" be inserted instead.

Yours faithfully
A.M. Smith.

SOUTH HOLLAND DISTRICT COUNCIL REPORT TO PLANNING COMMITTEE Date - 3 AUG 1994

COMMENTS

- 1 In November 1987 full permission (H07/1090/87) granted for stables, equine pool and bungalow. The stables and bungalow have been built.

"The occupancy of the dwelling hereby permitted shall be restricted to a person or persons employed either directly or engaged in a management capacity with the adjacent racehorse stabling facility as outlined in the plans accompanying this application, together with their family.
Reason: To ensure that the occupancy of the dwelling is not separated from the adjacent business use because of the possibility of disturbance that may result from the proximity of the business to the dwelling."
- 3 The applicant (who is not the same as that who applied for permission in 1987) wishes to use the stabling for the accommodation of horses as opposed to racehorses. She resides at the bungalow on the site.
