Details of the pre-application advice received

Comparing the previously refused scheme and this now tabled, I note that the garage has been removed from the proposals and the form of the extension reduced, most notably the roof heights and external treatments.

The design of the proposal is now largely sympathetic to the character and appearance of the building in terms of architectural detailing and materials of construction; the scale of the overall proposal, when viewed in the context of the existing barn, would be at the absolute limit of the acceptability of height, bulk and form of extension to enable the barn being retained whilst according with the national and local planning policies. The ridge height would match that of the existing barn, and the bulk and massing of the proposals would render the barn a visually primary element of the proposals.

The development could lead to an enhancement of the immediate setting of the building, in as much as a number of buildings in a poor state of repair would be removed, however this could take place without the development being proposed.

The previously supplied structural survey indicated that localised rebuilding may be required, however the engineer did not carry out any testing of the building structure and there had been at the time of submission no investigation of the building subsoils. The impacts of wet rot to the timbers (wall plates, rafter ends, purlins and ties) to the barn would indicate that a significant amount of rebuilding may be subsequently required, given the state of the roof, wall plate and other timbers, once the demolition of the other buildings on the site has taken place. The engineer set out in the survey that the tree growth adjacent to the building has caused disturbance to the brickwork and building foundations and the report showed the impact damage as well as the close proximity of the tree to the north wall. It is not clear to what extent the removal of this tree and vegetation would impact further on the stability of the building. If a further formal application is submitted then a more detailed survey would need to be submitted by an engineer who has addressed the above matters.

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:
(a) a member of staff
(b) an elected member
(c) related to a member of staff
(d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

◯ Yes
⊘ No
