Thank you for your email to the National Amenity Society's casework inbox.
This is a point of contact for the C20 Society, the Council for British Archaeology, the Georgian Group, Historic Buildings and Places, the Society for the Protection of Ancient Buildings, the Victorian Society and the Gardens Trust. All planning consultations and notifications should be directed to this inbox.

This inbox is managed by the Council for British Archaeology on behalf of the amenity societies and monitored Monday-Thursday. If you have an enquiry for a specific organisation, please reference this in your email and it will be forwarded on.

Consultations on planning and LBC applications will be logged on our casework database, casework.jcnas.org.uk, within five working days and assigned to the relevant organisations. All non-confidential applications are publicly visible. You can search for specific cases, track amenity societies' interactions with and decisions on applications, and read the advice provided by caseworkers on this online platform.

Any substantive comments on applications by the national amenity societies will be sent directly to planning authorities using the contact information provided in the consultation document.

If your enquiry requires a reply from the central administration team, we will respond as soon as possible. Due to a large volume of incoming emails there can sometimes be a delay in this.

Please note that due to the short expiry time we are unable to process documents shared via WeTransfer.
