

Statement Concerning Brickyard Farm Caravans

Having been made aware that the original approval is not permanent, we require renewed approval for the siting of six caravans.

This retrospective application regarding the above is in order to extend the existing approval.

The existing site has six caravans on it, these being used to house temporary agricultural workers throughout the summer months.