

The front of the field showing gated access and the hard standing that has since been laid

The training area at the far end of the field

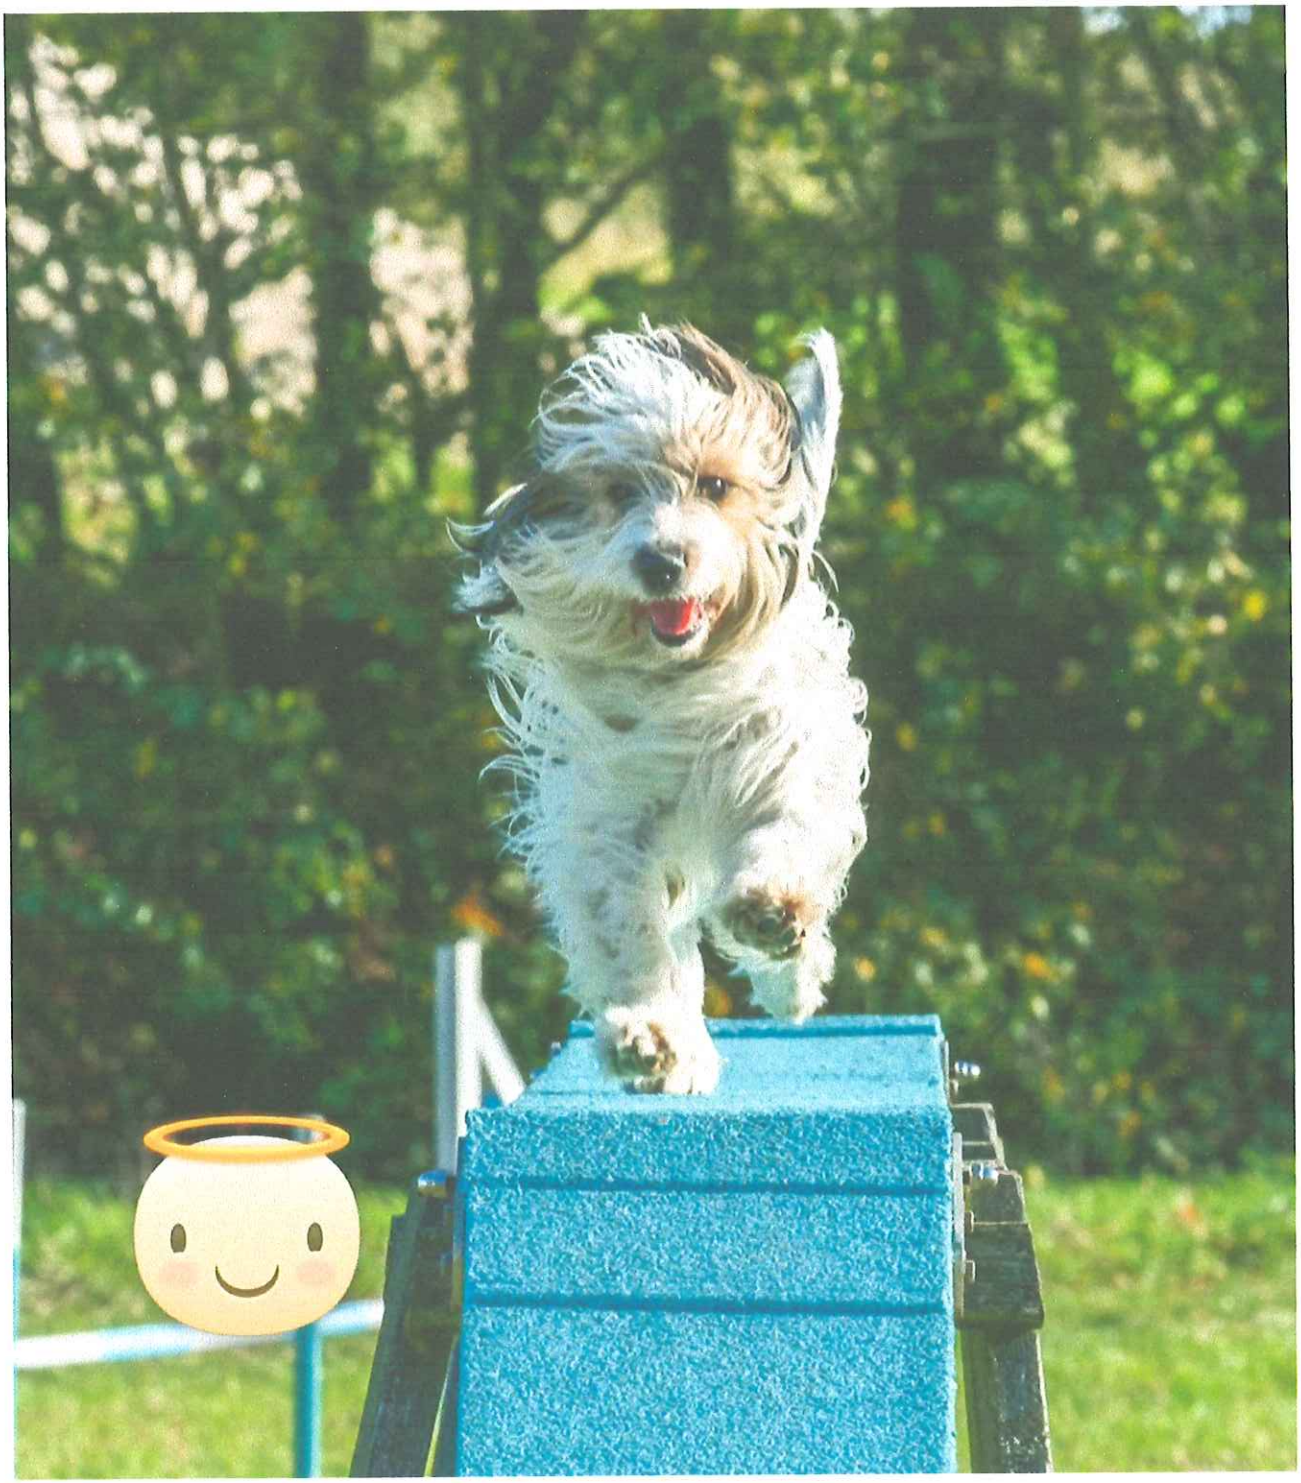

These 3 pictures show the training area during the camp last September. Small groups of 6 (COVID requirements adhered to) and only one dog/handler under instruction at a time.

One of the juniors I have taught competing in an international competition

Dogs enjoying their training and competitions

Lisa & Rober Smith
April 2020