TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990

FULL

Reference: H09-0663-19 Date of Decision: 22nd August 2019

Applicant: Mr E McGowan
87 Royle Green Road
Northenden
Manchester
M22 4LL

Location: Lazy Acre Caravan Site Little Dog Drove Holbeach St Johns Spalding

Description: Change of use of disused amenity building to dwelling

South Holland District Council hereby give notice that this application has been REFUSED for the above proposal for the following reason(s):

1 The application site is outside any settlement boundary

Such development should therefore be assessed against Policy 1 of the South East Lincolnshire Local Plan, 2019. It states that outside a settlement boundary, development will only be permitted that is necessary to such a location and/or where it can be demonstrated that it meets the sustainable development needs of the area in terms of economic, community or environmental benefits. In terms of these issues, there is not considered to be an essential need for development in this location on land use grounds. Whilst the proposal is deliverable and would make a contribution to the supply of housing required to meet the personal needs of the applicants' family and future generations, the site is not closely related to an existing built up area and would not be readily accessible to existing services and facilities other than by motor vehicle. The proposal is therefore contrary to Policy 1 of the South East Lincolnshire Local Plan 2019, and to paragraph 79 of the National Planning Policy Framework 2019.

2 The building is very new in construction and has no architectural or historical merit to justify a residential conversion.

The Local Planning Authority is of the view therefore that the proposals would be contrary to criteria 2 of Policy 23 of the South East Lincolnshire Local Plan.

Notes:

The determined plans and documents are:

The Local Planning Authority has acted positively and proactively in determining this application by assessing it against all material considerations, including national guidance, planning policies and representations that have been received during the public consultation exercise. However, the issues are so fundamental to the proposal, due to the harm which has been clearly identified within the reason(s) for the refusal, that approval has not been possible.

RIGHTS OF APPEAL

Appeals to the Secretary of State

If you are aggrieved by the decision of your Local Planning Authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or grant consent subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under Section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 or Section 20 of the Planning (Listed Building and Conservation Areas) Act 1990.

Timescales for appealing

The deadlines for appeals are calculated from the date of decision and are as follows for the types of applications below:

12 Weeks	6 Months	8 Weeks
Householder Applications	Planning Permission	Consent to Display Adverts
Minor Commercial Development	Listed Building Consent
Agricultural Determinations	Other Prior Approval Applications
Householder Prior Approval Applications

Enforcement Notices

If an enforcement notice was served prior to the planning application being determined then the deadline for appealing is 28 days from the date of the planning refusal

If an enforcement notice is served after the planning application is determined then the deadline for appealing is 28 days from the date of the enforcement notice OR the timescales stated above for each application type from the date of the planning refusal - whichever is sooner.

All appeals must be made using an Appeal Form which you can get from The Planning Inspectorate at Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Bristol, BS1 6PN (tel: 0303 444 5000) or you can submit your appeal online at:

http://www.planningportal.gov.uk/planning/appeals/online/makeanappeal

The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal but he will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.

The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to him that the Local Planning Authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions it imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order and to any directions given under the order. In practice the Secretary of State does not refuse to consider appeals solely because the Local Planning Authroity based its decision on a direction given by him.

Purchase Notices

If either the Local Planning Authority or the Secretary of State refuses permission to develop land or grant it subject to conditions the owner may claim that he can neither put the land to a reasonably beneficial use in its existing state nor can he render the land capable of a reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted.

In these circumstances the owner may serve a purchase notice on the Council in whose area the land is situated. This notice will require the Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of the Part VI of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 or Section 32 of the Planning (Listed Building and Conservation Areas) Act 1990.

Compensation

In certain circumstances compensation may be claimed from the Local Planning Authority if permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the Secretary of State on appeal or on reference of the application to him.

These circumstances are set out in Section 114 and related provisions of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 and Section 27 of the Planning (Listed Building and Conservation Areas) Act 1990.
