Thank you for consulting us on this matter.
The Trial Trench Evaluation report and Archaeological monitoring and recording report are two different documents.
The archaeological report that has been formally submitted is the Trial Trench Evaluation report
The archaeological contractor submitted drafts of the archaeological monitoring and recording report to this office, and it was approved in principle, subject to minor edits.
Since the archaeological monitoring and recording report has not yet been formally submitted, I am not in a position to recommend the discharge of Condition 21 of H09-1150-20.
