Grounds for Application

Information about the existing use(s)

Please explain why you consider the existing or last use of the land is lawful, or why you consider that any existing buildings, which it is proposed to alter or extend are lawful

It is accepted, following the case of North Devon District Council v The Secretary of State (2003) EWHC 157 Admin, that the proposed use falls within Use Class C2 and hence the change of use from C3 is not an automatic permitted change. However, it is nevertheless argued that there is little material difference between the current and proposed use, meaning that planning permission is not required. In SSETR and Waltham Forest LBC [2002] EWCA Civ 330, it was held that unless the old and new uses fell within the same use class, Section 192 requires a comparison between the proposed use and the actual previous use, rather than a hypothetical range of activities. Determining whether there has been or will be a material change of use is a question of fact and degree and the focus of the investigation must be the character of the use (East Barnet UDC v British Transport Commission (1962) 2QB 484). In cases where the old and new uses are residential in nature, the decision maker should access the planning impact of the change, particularly on neighbouring properties (Devonshire CC v Allens Caravans (Estates) Ltd (1962) 14P&CR).

Please list the supporting documentary evidence (such as a planning permission) which accompanies this application

Why do you consider that a Lawful Development Certificate should be granted for this proposal?

It is accepted, following the case of North Devon District Council v The Secretary of State (2003) EWHC 157 Admin, that the proposed use falls within Use Class C2 and hence the change of use from C3 is not an automatic permitted change. However, it is nevertheless argued that there is little material difference between the current and proposed use, meaning that planning permission is not required. Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
(b) an elected member
(c) related to a member of staff
(d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
