RE: MR. M. GLENN

HOPE HOUSE, HUNDREDS LANE, LITTLE SUTTON, LONG SUTTON. LINCOLNSHIRE

The Applicants business is currently located at Uppingham in Rutland where he started in 1992 and has now outgrown the premises there being no room for expansion.

The premises at Hope House Farm are ideal in that they are readily accessible and the buildings have sufficient space for current and foreseeable future requirements enabling most items to be stored under cover. It is intended to renovate the existing dwelling for habitation by the Applicant and his wife.

The Applicants business is the storage and distribution of historic military vehicle spares and accessories, the distribution of which is primarily by mail order. Parcels would usually be taken daily to the local Post Office or collected from the premises by a carrier. Carriers usually use a 3.5 ton van but occasionally a 7.5 ton box van is used. Goods would be collected and brought to the site by the Applicants 3.5 ton van and trailer or by haulage contractor, not normally more than once a week.

Occasionally complete vehicles are restored and this would be undertaken in the buildings. It is not normal for more than four vehicles to be on site at any one time - this does not include the Applicants small private collection of three military vehicles and two vintage tractors.

The Applicant has among his present customers:-

- The Imperial War Museum, Duxford
- The Museum of Army Transport, Beverley
- The Muckleburgh Collection, Norfolk
- The Tank Museum, Bovington
- Ministry of Defence contractors
- Corporate entertainment companies
- Military vehicle enthusiast groups
- Private collectors

A photograph of the interior of the Applicants current premises and a copy of an advertisement in a trade journal are attached which are a further indication of the type of business conducted.
