

The existing concrete cill will stay and the new timber windows will sit on this.
Very similar to how these windows are sat on the cill.
There will be drainage.