Description of Proposed Works

Please describe the proposed works

I wish to seek permission for the retrospective installation of an air source heat pump to the rear of my property. The air source heat pump is a Daikin 2MXM50N2V1B which feeds internally providing both heat and cold.

I had the heat pump installed in 2021 with the understanding that this was permitted development. I very recently learned that where an air source heat pump also provides cooling that it then requires planning permission. This was an oversight by my contractor and me personally.

Biodiversity net gain

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value.

This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm:

☑ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply

*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building.

Details of the pre-application advice received

I explained to Jacob that I had already had an air source heat pump installed and that it was able to provide heat and cold temperatures. I asked if planning permission should have been sought, Jacob and I read through the information and concluded it was required and advised me on how to apply. Further correspondence with Jacob confirmed that photographs of the air source heat pump and general area along with distances to boundaries would be acceptable instead of drawings.

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:
(a) a member of staff
(b) an elected member
(c) related to a member of staff
(d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?
