To whom it may concern.

Dear Sirs,

In 1951 at aged 7 i moved along with my family from Spalding to Lutton, where i continued to live until my marriage in 1966.

At lutton school i met along with other pupils Winston Knight, who i have known ever since.

He along with wife Zena had their family house built new in 1978 in Lutton Gowts, where he farmed until 1985 then becoming a produce merchant, a trade he continued until 1994 when he unfortunately became a carer for his poorly wife, they continued to live at ZENWIN Lutton Gowts where sadly Zena lost her fight for life in October 2015, Winston continues to live there.

I visit Lutton Bi monthly to attend to both parents and brothers graves, while visiting cemetery i am astonished to see so many gravestones with names i knew as a lad while living in Lutton, in fact i would not be surprised if Winston Knight is now the oldest survivor from that era still alive and living in Lutton, the other residents being new comers throughout the years.

To sum up, he is a Luttoner through & through living in same house since 1978, a decent honest hard working family man, whose two daughters and son are likewise.

Yours sincerely

Peter Coupland.

To whom it may concern

Winston George Knight has been known to me for at least 70 years.

He lived in Zenwin lutton Gowts from November 1978 and he commenced business as a produce

Merchant and a small holder, and he ran the small holding business until 1985, his wife was then diagnosed with chronic atheritis of the spine and was unable to assist him in the business.

He carried on as a produce merchant until 1994, he then closed the business and still lives in the house at Zenwin lutton Gowts.
