

REAR

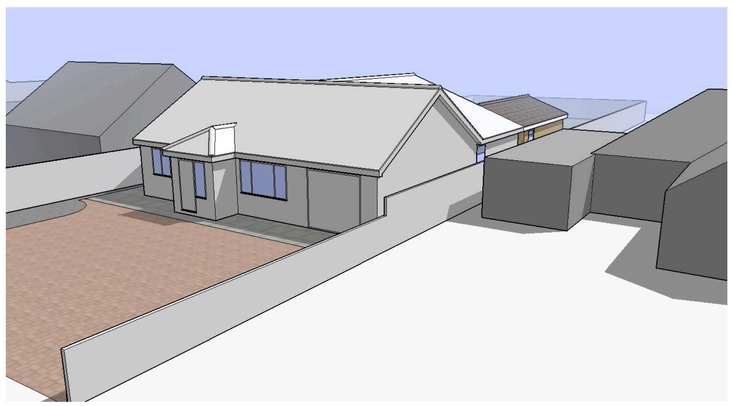

RIGHT

LEFT

PROPOSED EXTENSION AND ALTERATIONS TO 24 MARRIOTS GATE LUTTON for MR & MRS TAVERNER

DO NOT SCALE FROM THIS DRAWING

This drawing is the property of Julian Warrick Consultancy and is protected by the Copyright Designs and Patents Act 1988. It must not be loaned, copied or used for any purpose other than that for which it was supplied without the written consent of Julian Warrick Consultancy. No liability will be accepted for amendments made by other persons. Any discrepancies or omissions must be reported immediately to Julian Warrick Consultancy before any work is put in hand. Figured dimensions are to be taken in preference to scaled dimensions. Contractors must check all dimensions on site before work is put in hand and the building owner must inform Julian Warrick Consultancy of any discrepancies between the drawings and the Contract Specification. Julian Warrick Consultancy cannot be held responsible for errors or discrepancies contained within drawings that have been altered or amended by anyone other than Julian Warrick Consultancy without prior consent in writing. All dimensions are in millimetres unless otherwise stated. Where new work or alterations to existing structures are involved, it is assumed that the Contractor has visited the site and has taken into account any conditions likely to affect the work. Any inconsistencies between the drawings and specification are to be reported to the Architect before work commences. Where Building Regulation Approval is required, it is the responsibility of the Contractor to ensure that all the requirements of the Building Inspector are complied with. Any proposals or alterations made by the Contractor must be submitted to the Architect and Building Inspector for approval before work commences. Where Party Wall Agreements are necessary it is the responsibility of the Building Owner to comply with the Party Wall etc. Act 1996. Julian Warrick Consultancy cannot be held responsible for any failure by the Building Owner to comply with the Party Wall etc. Act 1996. Where Building Regulation Approval is required, it is the responsibility of the Contractor to ensure that all the requirements of the Building Inspector are complied with. Any proposals or alterations made by the Contractor must be submitted to the Architect and Building Inspector for approval before work commences. Where Party Wall Agreements are necessary it is the responsibility of the Building Owner to comply with the Party Wall etc. Act 1996. Julian Warrick Consultancy cannot be held responsible for any failure by the Building Owner to comply with the Party Wall etc. Act 1996. Where building to close proximity to adjoining neighbours boundaries, you should be aware of the requirements of the Party Wall etc. Act 1996. Work that may not specifically be shown but is to be reasonably inferred as necessary to be carried out in accordance with the best trade practice as defined by the NHBC shall be deemed to be included in the Contract. Work that may not specifically be shown but is to be reasonably inferred as necessary to be carried out in accordance with the best trade practice as defined by the NHBC shall be deemed to be included in the Contract. Any discrepancies or omissions must be reported immediately to Julian Warrick Consultancy before any work is put in hand. Figured dimensions are to be taken in preference to scaled dimensions. Contractors must check all dimensions on site before work is put in hand and the building owner must inform Julian Warrick Consultancy of any discrepancies between the drawings and the Contract Specification. Julian Warrick Consultancy cannot be held responsible for errors or discrepancies contained within drawings that have been altered or amended by anyone other than Julian Warrick Consultancy without prior consent in writing. All dimensions are in millimetres unless otherwise stated. Where new work or alterations to existing structures are involved, it is assumed that the Contractor has visited the site and has taken into account any conditions likely to affect the work. Any inconsistencies between the drawings and specification are to be reported to the Architect before work commences. Where Building Regulation Approval is required, it is the responsibility of the Contractor to ensure that all the requirements of the Building Inspector are complied with. Any proposals or alterations made by the Contractor must be submitted to the Architect and Building Inspector for approval before work commences. Where Party Wall Agreements are necessary it is the responsibility of the Building Owner to comply with the Party Wall etc. Act 1996. Julian Warrick Consultancy cannot be held responsible for any failure by the Building Owner to comply with the Party Wall etc. Act 1996. Where building to close proximity to adjoining neighbours boundaries, you should be aware of the requirements of the Party Wall etc. Act 1996. Work that may not specifically be shown but is to be reasonably inferred as necessary to be carried out in accordance with the best trade practice as defined by the NHBC shall be deemed to be included in the Contract. Any discrepancies or omissions must be reported immediately to Julian Warrick Consultancy before any work is put in hand. Figured dimensions are to be taken in preference to scaled dimensions. Contractors must check all dimensions on site before work is put in hand and the building owner must inform Julian Warrick Consultancy of any discrepancies between the drawings and the Contract Specification. Julian Warrick Consultancy cannot be held responsible for errors or discrepancies contained within drawings that have been altered or amended by anyone other than Julian Warrick Consultancy without prior consent in writing. All dimensions are in millimetres unless otherwise stated. Where new work or alterations to existing structures are involved, it is assumed that the Contractor has visited the site and has taken into account any conditions likely to affect the work. Any inconsistencies between the drawings and specification are to be reported to the Architect before work commences. Where Building Regulation Approval is required, it is the responsibility of the Contractor to ensure that all the requirements of the Building Inspector are complied with. Any proposals or alterations made by the Contractor must be submitted to the Architect and Building Inspector for approval before work commences. Where Party Wall Agreements are necessary it is the responsibility of the Building Owner to comply with the Party Wall etc. Act 1996. Julian Warrick Consultancy cannot be held responsible for any failure by the Building Owner to comply with the Party Wall etc. Act 1996. Where building to close proximity to adjoining neighbours boundaries, you should be aware of the requirements of the Party Wall etc. Act 1996. Work that may not specifically be shown but is to be reasonably inferred as necessary to be carried out in accordance with the best trade practice as defined by the NHBC shall be deemed to be included in the Contract. Any discrepancies or omissions must be reported immediately to Julian Warrick Consultancy before any work is put in hand. Figured dimensions are to be taken in preference to scaled dimensions. Contractors must check all dimensions on site before work is put in hand and the building owner must inform Julian Warrick Consultancy of any discrepancies between the drawings and the Contract Specification. Julian Warrick Consultancy cannot be held responsible for errors or discrepancies contained within drawings that have been altered or amended by anyone other than Julian Warrick Consultancy without prior consent in writing. All dimensions are in millimetres unless otherwise stated. Where new work or alterations to existing structures are involved, it is assumed that the Contractor has visited the site and has taken into account any conditions likely to affect the work. Any inconsistencies between the drawings and specification are to be reported to the Architect before work commences. Where Building Regulation Approval is required, it is the responsibility of the Contractor to ensure that all the requirements of the Building Inspector are complied with. Any proposals or alterations made by the Contractor must be submitted to the Architect and Building Inspector for approval before work commences. Where Party Wall Agreements are necessary it is the responsibility of the Building Owner to comply with the Party Wall etc. Act 1996. Julian Warrick Consultancy cannot be held responsible for any failure by the Building Owner to comply with the Party Wall etc. Act 1996. Where building to close proximity to adjoining neighbours boundaries, you should be aware of the requirements of the Party Wall etc. Act 1996. Work that may not specifically be shown but is to be reasonably inferred as necessary to be carried out in accordance with the best trade practice as defined by the NHBC shall be deemed to be included in the Contract. The General Contractor must be Asbestos Aware & to the latest codes of practice

-
-
-

3D VIEWS & ELEVATIONS

1/100 3D no scale	3/2/16

J054-PL 2

Julian Warrick

Architectural Design Consultant

SEE your design. Imagine no longer how it looks. SEE how it looks

Email: julian@jwarrick-design-cons.com
Tel: 01775 820123
Mob: 07849 652067
JulianWarrick.co.uk
Google +

8 Beech Grove
Donington
Spalding
Lincs
PE11 4XQ