This and the relevant drawings are the property of the author and are protected by the Copyright Act. Permission to use the drawings for the erection of the building to which they relate is granted to the owner of the property on payment of the fees due to the author. Permission does not extend to the use of the drawings for any extension of the building or for the erection of any other building. The drawings must not be loaned, copied or passed to any third party without the written consent of the author. All dimensions are to be checked on site before any work is put in hand or any materials ordered. Any discrepancies are to be reported to the author before any work is executed. The Building Regulations Drawings are prepared for submission to the Local Authority Building Control Department and are not to be used for any other purpose. Any variations from the Building Regulations Drawings required by the Local Authority Building Control Department or by the Contractor must be notified to the author before any work is executed. The Contractor is responsible for ensuring that any sub-contractors employed fully understand the extent of their responsibilities in connection with the drawings and the building works. These drawings do not include sufficient information for the purposes of the Construction (Design and Management) Regulations 2015. It is the responsibility of the Contractor to ensure that all aspects of the works comply with the requirements of the Regulations. The Contractor is to take account of the Health and Safety File prepared by the Principal Designer before commencing any works on site. The Contractor is to ensure that adequate temporary bracing is provided to maintain the stability of the structure during construction. Dimensions are not to be taken from the drawings. Figured dimensions are to be worked to in all cases. Where dimensions are critical, they are indicated. Contractors working to these drawings are responsible for setting out the works correctly and for ensuring that the building complies with the setting out shown on the approved plans. Any discrepancies are to be brought to the attention of the author before the affected work is put in hand. The Contractor is responsible for the adequacy of any temporary or permanent works designed by specialist engineers or sub-contractors employed by the Contractor. The Contractor is responsible for obtaining any necessary approvals under the Party Wall etc. Act 1996. Any boundary dimensions given are for guidance only and are to be checked on site by the Contractor before any works are put in hand.
