

We will then release to the Council – or in accordance with its instructions – the amount so specified up to the amount held by ourselves in this regard.

- c) In the event that the Charity assigns the Lease of the Mill other than to an associated Company we will return the sum (or the balance thereof) to the Charity only with the prior written consent of the Council. Such prior written consent shall not be unreasonably withheld in the event that the assignee of the lease of the Mill arranges the deposit of a sum of money equivalent of that then deposited with ourselves with a person acceptable to the Council who is prepared to give an undertaking in terms similar to that contained herein.
- d) We will notify the Council and the Charity of the total amount on deposit with ourselves upon receipt of a written request from either of them up to a maximum of twice in any one year
- e) The definitions in the Section 106 Agreement dated 8th day of September 1997 shall apply to the letter.

Yours faithfully
