4. Eligibility

Will the extension be:
- A single storey; and
- No more than 4 metres in height (measured externally from the natural ground level);

☐ Yes ☐ No

If you have answered no above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Will the extension:
- Where the house is detached, extend beyond the rear wall of the original dwellinghouse by over 4 but no more than 8 metres; or
- Where the house is not detached, extend beyond the rear wall of the original dwellinghouse by over 3 but no more than 6 metres;

Note that this should be measured externally.
Where the proposed extension will be joined to an existing extension, the measurement must be in respect to the total enlargement (i.e. both the existing and proposed extensions) to the original dwellinghouse.

☐ Yes ☐ No

If you have answered no above, the proposed extension will not be within the limits, set by legislation, for the prior approval process.
- If the proposed extension would not extend, as detailed above, by over 3 metres (or over 4 metres for a detached house) Permitted development rights may still apply, subject to all the other eligibility criteria (including some not covered by this form).
- If the proposed extension would extend, as detailed above, by over 6 metres (or over 8 metres for a detached house) The size of proposed extension means that you will likely need planning permission to build it.

In either circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Is the dwellinghouse to be extended within any of the following:
- a conservation area;
- an area of outstanding natural beauty;
- an area specified by the Secretary of State for the purposes of enhancement and protection of the natural beauty and amenity of the countryside;
- the Broads;
- a National Park;
- a World Heritage Site;
- a site of special scientific interest;

☐ Yes ☐ No

If you have answered yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

5. Description of Proposed Works

Please describe the proposed single-storey rear extension:

We currently have a lean to style conservatoty 2.94 x 5.10 (internal) that is in a poor state of repair (built in 2005) We propose to remove the structure and rebuild on the exact same footprint 2.94 x 5.10 an orangery.

The proposed will be constructed of brickwork with a 3.5m bifold door leading out to centre of the garden. Of which the boundary wall sits in excess of 5m.
To the rear we will replace the full floor to ceiling windows with a 1x2.1m fixed full window and brickwork. The proposed will have a flat roof and a 2x1m skypod lantern in the roof.

The current structure is attached to the existing dining room and kitchen which we plan to keep.

How far will the extension extend beyond the rear wall of the original dwellinghouse: 5.35 metres

Note that this should be measured externally.
Where the proposed extension will be joined to an existing extension, the measurement must be in respect to the total enlargement (i.e. both the existing and proposed extensions) to the original dwellinghouse.

What will be the maximum height of the extension (measured externally from the natural ground level): 3.70 metres

What will be the height at the eaves of the extension (measured externally from the natural ground level): 3.70 metres
