

Meachen, Tracey

Subject: FW: Spalding Station (H16/0024/09)

From: Victoria Walker [mailto:Victoria.Walker@jnpgroup.co.uk]

Sent: 06 March 2009 10:48

To: Meachen, Tracey

Subject: RE: Spalding Station (H16/0024/09)

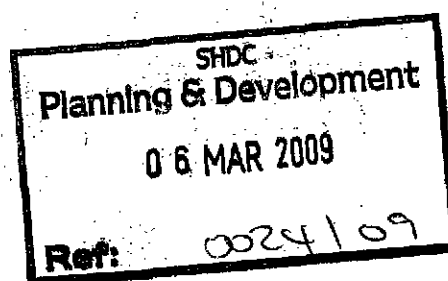

Tracey,

I've been speaking with the contractor who's had discussions with East Midlands Trains, they were thinking that the best option to keep the toilets secure from one another while still having an acceptable appearance would be to have a narrow perimeter section of solid ceiling (say 300mm wide) with an infill of glazed area in the middle, probably in both the disabled and the ladies WCs.

Could you confirm that this would be acceptable?

Regards

Vicky

06/03/2009