Mate

The Planning Amendments stuff still isn't live yet so you still cant quite use it – the one you've submitted today needs an amendment form for now – wont be long before our software company has sorted out the issues we have and you can use it to submit all info (amendments and additional stuff) – when you do use it the amendment form will be automatically created by the system and so you'll never have to fill another one out ever again!!

For the time being would you indulge us by dropping an amendment form in just so we can tick the box as it were – I've passed the plan on to Karen so no need to resend that.

Cheers

Chris
