This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm:

☒ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply

*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building.

Details of the pre-application advice received

Policies 2 and 3 of the Local Plan, alongside Section 12 National Planning Policy Framework, concern the design and character impacts of new developments. Based upon the submitted information, the proposed first-floor extension appears well blended into the host dwelling, appearing as a natural addition to the host.

That being said, the proposed ground floor extension does not appear to have fully addressed the concerns raised from H16-0084-24. In particular, the proposed materials do not appear fully integrated with the host property or the wider area. The use of more typical materials, which better complement the host property, may be more appropriate. I would be happy to advise if you wish to change this prior to submission.

Policies 2 and 3 also concern amenity impacts. Based upon the submitted information, the proposal would not have an unacceptable impact upon neighbouring dwellings. That being said, the matter of amenity should be considered closely within a submission.

Material used on proposed extension have been amended after further discussion with planning officer via emails.

Material shown on proposed drawings are mixture of the bricks and render, those materials will strongly sit with the character of the street.

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
- (d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

- ☐ Yes
- ☒ No
