Hi,

I am happy for this to be submitted formally as application. Obviously we cannot guarantee the outcome and will have to wait to see if any objections are received and then subsequently Members views on the proposal. I do, however, think it is a fair attempt to overcome the previous concerns.

Thanks
Phil

Hi Phil

Amended drawings attached for comment.

My client has decided to opt for normal windows to the rear first floor with obscure glazing.

Do you think this will now be acceptable?

Kind regards
