

security and choice

A wide range of decorative effects are available to help you personalise the style and design of your new windows. Special glass effects, including Georgian bar, lead, stained glass, patterned or clear will ensure that your windows reflect exactly the style you want to create.

For more information, see our separate brochures on technical information, decorative panels and glass options.