

Lincolnshire free press

Since 1847

Tuesday
April 9
2019

ILIFFE MEDIA

95p

Spalding today, locally

LEARN, LAUGH
AND LIVE
WITH U3A

WALKERS
SEE PAGES
FOR TOLLY

Heart-felt concern

Medical centre refused to call ambulance for chest-pain patient

By WENDY DAVIES
w.davies@spaldingpress.co.uk
@spaldingpress

A Spalding surgery is at the centre of a storm after claims that staff refused to summon an ambulance for a patient with a heart complaint. Munro Medical Centre has been

Unexplained death of UAH pupil Alexander

A local newspaper has been told that a pupil at the University of Applied Sciences (UAH) died in a fire. The 22-year-old, who was a local as a chain (U4), died in a fire at the university. The fire broke out in a room where Alexander was studying. The fire was caused by a faulty electrical plug. The fire was extinguished by the fire service. The fire was caused by a faulty electrical plug. The fire was extinguished by the fire service. The fire was caused by a faulty electrical plug. The fire was extinguished by the fire service.

2:31

83

Spalding
12 April 2019 10:58 am

Edit

2:15

84

Spalding
12 April 2019 10:57 am

Edit

2:18

83

Spalding
12 April 2019 10:57 am

Edit

Since 1947

Tuesday
April 9
2019

Lincolnshire free press

ILIFFE MEDIA

95p

spaldingtoday.co.uk

WALKERS NEEDED
FOR TOLLY

LEARN, LAUGH
AND LIVE
WITH USA

Heart-felt concern aims medical centre refused to call ambulance for chest-pain patient

By WENDY BROWN
w.brown@spaldingtoday.co.uk
(01775) 810000

A Spalding surgery is at the centre of a storm after claims that staff refused to summon an ambulance for a patient with a heart complaint. Munro Medical Centre has been challenged over its emergency procedures after a 33-year-old man was brought into the surgery because of 'chest pains and heart palpitations'. The man was eventually taken to Boston's Pilgrim Hospital on Tuesday, 50 minutes after he and carer Nadya Cruz arrived at Munro, where she asked for urgent medical attention. Ms Cruz, a property manager for a private landlord, who lives in Spalding, said:

Unexplained death of UAH pupil Alexander

A police investigation has been launched after the death of a teenager and student at University Academy, Holbeach. The boy has been named locally as Alexander Buchanan (14), although no details have been confirmed about how he died and a Lincolnshire Live online Service spokesman said that formal identification has yet to be completed. The spokesman said: 'Police are investigating an incident but identification has not been confirmed and enquiries are ongoing.' An online fundraising appeal has been set up by Alexander's family and a tribute read: 'As a family, we are trying our hardest to raise as much money as possible to give our boy the best possible send-off he deserves.' Another tribute to Alexander from sister Beth Donnelly said: 'I never thought I'd ever have to say goodbye