2. OWNERSHIP OF THE SITE

This certificate is to make sure that the owners of land are aware of the requirements of the Act.

If the applicant is the sole owner of the whole site, complete Section 2 in any other case file. If the applicant is a prospective purchaser (i.e. a person who is not the owner of only part of the site) then you must give notice to all owners of the site. (An "owner" is a person having a freehold interest, or having a leasehold interest which remains unexpired). If you are unable to trace the owner of the site, a different certificate will be required.

Certificate A: Nobody except the applicant was an owner of the site at the time the application relates to the beginning of the application period. (i.e. the date of the accompanying notice).

Signed J. Merchant

Signed J. Merchant

3. AGRICULTURAL HOLDINGS CERTIFICATE

If the land is not in agricultural use complete Certificate 1.

If the land is agricultural, but farmed by the owner and there is no other person who is an agricultural tenant, complete Certificate 1.

If the site does relate to an agricultural holding, you must give notice to all agricultural tenants.

Certificate 2: If you are the sole agricultural tenant yourself, sign and give notice to all other agricultural tenants of the site, giving the tenant details.

Certificate 1: None of the land to which the application relates is an agricultural holding.

Signed J. Merchant

15.4.98

Certificate 2: The applicant has given the required notice to all agricultural tenants of the site, giving the tenant details, within the period of 21 days ending with the date of the application.
