Description of Proposed Works

Please describe the proposed works

We propose a small (7'4" x 14'6") pre fab metal shed to be placed in the orchard area of our property. It will be completely hidden from view from the Grade II listed house as it is behind high hedges. It is not for sleeping arrangements, it is purely for storage, and will not be electrified. It will be a forest green colour so will blend in with nature.

Has the work already been started without consent?

Biodiversity net gain

Householder developments are currently exempt from biodiversity net gain requirements.

However, this exemption still needs to be confirmed by the applicant or agent when making a householder planning permission application.

☒ I/we confirm that the proposed development, if granted permission, would be exempt from the general biodiversity gain condition.

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended) sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'general biodiversity gain condition'.

However, the 'general biodiversity gain condition' does not apply in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of Article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as amended).

Details of the pre-application advice received

Through email contact from 26th Feb through to 8th March, 2024, Greg let us know that a Planning Application should be submitted as the small shed is sited within the curtilage of our Grade II house, even though it is in the orchard area and obscured from view.

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
- (d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

- ☐ Yes
- ☒ No
