The site from (H) showing hedges and trees used by bats and birds.

Note that only land beyond this line is 3 metres from the drain and therefore can be built on. This is the only area where drain can flood if a problem occurs.