

Assessment of Flood Risk

We have lived in the property for 35 years and there has been no risk of flooding.

The whole area is well drained, and we do not get any standing water on the property.

I see no reason why flooding should occur in the future.

signed Brian King.

