Hi David

I still do not appear to have had the amendment form which Sarah requested last week. I'm not sure where the plan is either – I don't suppose you could send them both to me again.

Thanks

Karen

Morning David,

I have now carried out a site inspection in respect of the above application.

It appears that the farm office is currently under construction, but differs in design from the submitted plans. Amended plans will therefore have to be submitted which address this matter.

Regards.

David Gedney
