DO NOT SCALE FROM THIS DRAWING

This drawing is copyright and may not be reproduced except with the prior written consent of the author. The contractor is responsible for checking all dimensions on site prior to commencement of any work. Any discrepancies must be reported immediately. Figured dimensions are to be taken in preference to scaled dimensions. This drawing is to be read in conjunction with all relevant engineers' and specialists' drawings and specifications. Any substitutions or variations must be approved in writing by the architect before work proceeds. All materials and workmanship must comply with the relevant British Standards and Building Regulations. The architect is not responsible for the performance of materials or workmanship that do not meet these standards. All dimensions are in millimetres unless otherwise stated. Levels are indicative and must be confirmed on site. Any ambiguities or omissions in this drawing must be clarified with the architect before proceeding. The client is responsible for obtaining all necessary planning permissions, building regulations approvals, and party wall agreements. Health and safety during construction is the responsibility of the contractor. This drawing is not to be used for setting out purposes. Dimensions should not be scaled from this drawing. The contractor must verify all dimensions on site before commencing any work or ordering any materials. Any work that may affect neighbouring properties must be carried out in accordance with the Party Wall etc. Act 1996. Where building regulations approval is required, work must not commence until such approval has been obtained. Any changes made without the knowledge or consent of the architect will not be the responsibility of the architect. The client is responsible for ensuring adequate insurance cover is in place for all works. The Construction (Design and Management) Regulations 2015 may apply to this project. The client must appoint a competent principal designer and principal contractor where required. All work must be carried out in a workmanlike manner and in accordance with good building practice. The architect is not liable for any loss or damage caused by defective workmanship or materials. Any variations from the approved planning drawings may require a new planning application. This drawing is protected by the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988. Unauthorised use, reproduction, or distribution of this drawing, in whole or in part, without the prior written consent of the author is strictly prohibited and may result in legal action. Any infringement will be pursued to the fullest extent of the law
