6th March 2002

Dear Sirs,

Following on from the recent meeting I had with Terry Huggins and Councillors Sheila Whyles and Nick Worth I have abandoned my original idea of having the faces of prominent Whaplode people displayed in an artistic fashion.

After a very good discussion it was thought that profiles of about 24 garden birds would be quite interesting, not only in their own right but also for the visitors along the South Holland District Council promoted sculpture walk.

I have spoken to some original residents in The Tilney and they are very keen on the idea.

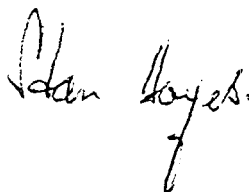

As you will see, I have enclosed the outlines of two birds and the others will be similarly done.

The heights of the posts could vary, they will be concreted in but also moveable if necessary for drainage work to take place.

The colour of the birds and posts can be discussed at a later date.

I hope that my idea meets with your approval and does not get misinterpreted by the public as did the previous application.

Yours faithfully,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read 'Stan Hoyes' with a stylized flourish at the end.

Stan Hoyes.
