Dear Sir/Madam,

Thank you for your email seeking HSE's observations on application H23-0313-25.

HSE is a statutory consultee for certain developments within the consultation distance of major hazard sites and major accident hazard pipelines, and has provided planning authorities with access to the HSE Planning Advice Web App - <https://pa.hsl.gov.uk/> - for them to use to consult HSE and obtain HSE's advice.

However, this application does not relate to a relevant development on which to consult the HSE Land Use Planning (LUP) Team, as it is not within a consultation distance of a major hazard site or major hazard pipeline. There is therefore no need to consult the HSE LUP team on this planning application and the HSE LUP team has no comment to make.

There are additional areas where HSE is a statutory consultee. For full details, please refer to annex 2 of HSE's Land Use Planning Methodology:
www.hse.gov.uk/landuseplanning/methodology.htm

Kind Regards,
Tim

The Health and Safety Executive (HSE) is conducting a programme of research to understand the needs of people using their services for Land Use Planning Advice (including HSE's planning advice web app), Hazardous Substances Consent and their related guidance. This helps us create services that work better for the public and for government. Participation is voluntary. If you would like to be informed about opportunities to participate, please read and complete this consent form: <https://forms.office.com/e/twNqwPKE9x>. If you need a different format or have questions about this research, please contact the user research team on LUPuserresearch@hse.gov.uk and we will do our best to help. Thank you.
